Reading LINK would like to wish you a Merry Christmas and thank you for your interest and support during 2009. We look forward to working with you in 2010, when we will be taking forward our Community Survey about Health and Social Care Services in Reading, and progressing issues that are brought to the attention of the LINK from Reading Communities.

Berkshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust – Next Generation Care Programme

This is a complete review of the way that Berkshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust provides its services. The aim of the programme is to both improve quality of services and reduce cost in the light of the present financial climate. To find out more visit

Is Food Tax a Healthy Option? – Event - Tuesday 26th January 2010 at 7pm Kennet Room, Civic Offices

Come Dance with Me (a voluntary group promoting physical exercise for older people) are hosting this event. They are inviting people to come and listen to what the speaker, Dr Kelechi Nnoaham has to say about this subject and to discuss your thoughts on the topic. Dr Nnoaham is a Consultant on public health at the West Berkshire Primary Care Trust and has written a paper on the subject, he will also be speaking about similar taxation schemes already in place in Norway, Finland and Denmark. If you would like more information or would like to attend please contact Come Dance with Me via e-mail at comedancewithme@btconnect.com or Tel: 0118 926 1205.
